

Sound Poetry

JAAP

BLONK

Jaap Blonk is an internationally acclaimed Dutch sound poet, voice performer, and composer who has performed throughout Europe, as well as in the U.S., Canada, Indonesia, South Africa and Latin America. His extraordinary performances consist of his own original work with voice, as well as related historical material derived from the early modernist movement of Dada and later, Fluxus. Blonk is the founder and leader of Splinks, a 15-piece orchestra that performs his compositions, and BRAAXTAAL, an avant-rock trio.

NOVEMBER 21 • 7:30PM • FREE
University Gallery/Bldg 2-Founders Hall
University of North Florida

4567 St. Johns Bluff Road • Jacksonville • 904.620.2534